V. FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDER ORGANIZATION

A. The Court finds that the Federal Public Defender Organization of the Western District of New York previously established in this District pursuant to the CJA is an effective component in the provision of legal assistance in this District as required by the CJA and Guidelines and shall continue to provide such services to eligible persons in this District under the CJA Guidelines and the Plan. The Federal Public Defender Organization shall be capable of providing representation throughout the District and shall maintain offices in Buffalo and Rochester, New York.

B. The Federal Public Defender shall be responsible for the supervision and management of the Federal Public Defender Organization. It will be the responsibility of the Federal Public Defender to designate the staff attorney who will handle a case assigned to the Public Defender Organization.

C. The Federal Public Defender shall comply with all reporting and other duties including reports of the Organization's activities, financial condition and budgets as required by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts and as provided in the Plan. Copies of such reports shall be furnished to the Court.

VI. ASSIGNMENT OF FEDERAL PUBLIC DEFENDER AND PRIVATE COUNSEL UNDER THE PLAN

Legal services to eligible persons shall be provided by both the Federal Public Defender Organization of this District and private counsel who are appointed from the Trial Panel and from the Appellate Panel as established under the Plan. It is the Court's intention that private counsel from the Trial and Appellate Panels will be assigned as counsel in a substantial portion of cases.

VII. ESTABLISHMENT OF PANEL SELECTION COMMITTEE

A. Membership

A Panel Selection Committee shall be established by the Court. The Committee shall consist of seven members as follows:

- (1) four experienced criminal defense attorneys from the private bar of the District - two from the Buffalo division of the District and two from the Rochester division;
- (2) two Judges of the Court; and
- (3) the Federal Public Defender for the District.

The private bar members of the Committee shall serve without compensation and at the pleasure of the Court. One of the four private attorney members of the Committee shall be the representative of the District to the National Conference of CJA Attorneys. The Federal Public Defender for the District shall be a permanent member of the Committee and shall serve as its secretary. The Committee shall select its own chairperson. The Committee may be expanded from time to time, at the discretion of the Court. Unless otherwise stated in this Plan, "the Committee" refers to the entire Committee or the Committee's designated subcommittee or representative.

B. Duties of the Committee

The Committee shall meet at least twice each calendar year to consider business pertinent to the administration of the Plan as determined by the Committee or as requested by the Court. Such business may include reviewing applications for admission to the Trial Panel, Appellate Panel and the respective Training Panels ("the Panels") as established by the Plan. The Committee shall review the qualifications of all such applicants, and recommend, for approval by the Court, those applicants meeting the criteria established by the Plan for admission to the Panels. The Committee may interview any applicant at its discretion. The Committee shall also review, at least once annually, the operation and administration of the Panels, and recommend to the Court any changes deemed necessary or appropriate by the Committee regarding the appointment process and management of the Panels, including removal of an attorney as a member of any Panels, and the general operation of the Plan. The Committee may also report to the Court as to the continued availability of Panel members to accept appointments. The Committee shall also consider such other matters as are referred to the Committee by the Court.

VIII. ESTABLISHMENT OF THE TRIAL PANEL

A. Eligibility

Any attorney who seeks appointment as a member of the Trial Panel must be admitted to practice before the Court and the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit and be in good standing.

Such attorney must certify that he or she has read and can demonstrate knowledge of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Federal Rules of Evidence, the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, the United States Sentencing Guidelines, the Bail Reform Act of 1984, the Local Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Second Circuit Rules of Appellate Procedure.

Such attorney must have tried at least two felony cases to verdict in either state or federal court.

Alternatively, an applicant for appointment to the Trial Panel must have appeared as defense counsel of record in at least two federal felony cases from initial appearance or arraignment through sentencing and have other significant trial experience as determined by the Committee. Unless specifically permitted by the Court, applicants shall have their principal place of business within the Western District of New York.

B. Application for Trial Panel Membership

An attorney who wishes to serve on the Trial Panel under this Plan must submit a written application for Trial Panel Membership. This requirement applies to all attorneys regardless of whether they have previously taken assignments under the existing CJA Plan or not. Application forms for Trial Panel membership shall be available from the Clerk of the Court and the Federal Public Defender. Applications shall be submitted to the Federal Public Defender, who shall promptly forward all applications to the chairperson of the Committee.

C. Disputes

Any disputes regarding appointment to the Trial Panel must be submitted, in writing, to the Chief Judge for determination by the Court.

IX. APPELLATE PANEL

A. Eligibility

An Appellate Panel shall be created, consisting of attorneys who wish to handle post-conviction matters only. An applicant for membership on the Appellate Panel must complete a written application, available through the Federal Public Defender or the Clerk of the Court. Applicants must be members in good standing of the bar of the District, and admitted to practice before United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. An applicant must certify that the applicant has read and can demonstrate knowledge of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Federal Rules of Evidence, the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, the United States Sentencing Guidelines, the Bail Reform Act of 1984, the Local Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Second Circuit Rules of Appellate Procedure. An applicant must have been counsel of record in at least two state or federal direct criminal or habeas corpus appeals, which were briefed and argued by the applicant, and shall submit to the Committee a recent writing sample.

B. Assignment

Assignment of cases to members of the Appellate Panel shall follow the same procedure as set forth in Section XI of this Plan. Members of the Appellate Panel are subject to Section XV and XVI of this Plan.

C. Disputes

Any disputes regarding appointment to the Appellate Panel must be submitted, in writing, to the Chief Judge for determination by the Court.

X. TRAINING PANELS

The Committee shall establish a Training Panel for attorneys whose current professional experience does not meet the requirements for membership on either the Trial Panel or the Appellate Panel.

A. Trial Panel

The Training Panel for trial work shall consist of attorneys admitted in the District who wish to accept misdemeanor assignments and who are willing to assist members of the Trial Panel in a "second chair" capacity. Training Panel members may not receive assignments in felony cases. A Training Panel attorney may be appointed by a presiding Judge to provide legal representation for an eligible person where the criminal charge involved is solely a misdemeanor. A Training Panel attorney who assists on a "second chair" basis from jury selection through verdict in a federal felony trial may count such trial experience as the equivalent of having tried one felony case for the purpose of satisfying the requirements for membership on the Trial Panel. Prior service on the Training Panel is not a requirement for membership on the Trial Panel, nor will service on the Training Panel necessarily result in membership on the Trial Panel.

B. Appellate Panels

The Committee shall also establish a Training Panel for attorneys whose current professional experience does not meet the requirements for membership on the Appellate Panel. Training Panel members seeking membership on the Appellate Panel will be afforded an opportunity to assist a member of the Appellate Panel in the briefing for argument of at least one direct felony conviction or federal habeas corpus appeal under standards as may be adopted by the Committee. The rendering of satisfactory assistance in a minimum of one appeal to the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit under this section as determined by the Committee may be substituted for service as appellate counsel of record in one federal appeal for purposes of meeting the requirements for membership on the Appellate Panel as provided in this Plan. Prior service on the Training Panel is not a requirement for membership on the Appellate Panel, nor will service on the Training Panel necessarily result in membership on the Appellate Panel.

C. Eligibility for Training Panels

An applicant to a Training Panel must certify that he or she has read and can demonstrate knowledge of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Federal Rules of Evidence, the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, the United States Sentencing Guidelines, the Bail Reform Act of 1984, the Local Rules of Criminal Procedure and the Second Circuit Rules of Appellate Procedure. Training Panel members shall comply with the requirements of Section XV of this Plan.

D. Disputes

Any disputes regarding eligibility for appointment to the Trial and Appellate Training Panels must be submitted, in writing, to the Chief Judge for determination by the Court.

XI. APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

A. In every case in which appointment of counsel pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3006A and this Plan is authorized, it is the duty of the Judge to advise the person of the right to counsel. The Judge shall appoint counsel promptly if the person is financially unable to obtain adequate counsel, unless the person waives her right to be represented by counsel.

B. In all cases in which a person qualifies for appointment of counsel, the Court may direct the Federal Public Defender Office to appoint counsel from the CJA Panel. Under special circumstances, the Court may appoint directly a particular member of the bar of the Court. Such special circumstances may include cases in which the Judge determines that the appointment of a particular attorney is in the interest of justice, judicial economy or continuity of representation, or when some other compelling circumstance obtains.

C. In the absence of the aforementioned special circumstances, the appointing Judge will immediately notify the Federal Public Defender Office, by telephone or in person, of the need for appointment of counsel.

D. Personnel from the Federal Public Defender Office, upon receiving notice of the appointment, shall immediately obtain from the appointing Judge all relevant information, such as the nature of the charge, the location of the accused, the date and time of the next scheduled court appearance, whether there may exist an ethical conflict of interest precluding the Federal Public Defender Office from accepting the appointment, etc.

E. If the decision is made to refer the case to a Panel attorney, the Federal Public Defender Office will promptly select a Panel attorney and contact that attorney to determine his/her availability for appointment.

F. The Federal Public Defender Office shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that counsel is appointed expeditiously, that appointments from the Panel are fairly distributed among all members of the Panel, and that information concerning the continued availability of counsel for appointment is maintained. It is the policy of the Court to seek a balanced distribution of appointments among all the members of the Panel.

G. The Court and the Federal Public Defender Office shall each maintain a list of attorneys eligible for appointment as members of the Panel, with office addresses and telephone numbers for each attorney. A regularly updated copy of this list shall be provided to each Judge.

H. Counsel appointed to represent a person in custody shall make contact with that person as soon as possible after being advised of the appointment. Counsel shall not accept an appointment if unable to meet expeditiously with a client in custody.

I. A defendant shall not have the right to select a particular attorney from the Federal Public Defender's Office or the Trial Panel or from the Appellate Panel.

J. Counsel shall be provided to eligible persons as soon as feasible after they are taken into custody, when they first appear before the Court, or when the Judge otherwise considers appointment of counsel appropriate under the CJA, whichever occurs first.

K. The determination of eligibility for representation under the CJA is a judicial function to be performed by the Court after making appropriate inquiries concerning the person's financial condition.

L. If, at any time after the appointment of counsel, the Court finds that the defendant is financially able to obtain counsel or make partial payments for the representation, the Court may terminate the appointment of counsel or direct that any funds available to the defendant be paid, in a lump sum or by periodic payments, as provided in 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(f). If, at any time after appointment, counsel obtains information that a client is financially able to make payment, in whole or in part, for legal or other services in connection with his or her representation, and the source of the attorney's information is not protected as a privileged communication, counsel shall advise the Court.

M. At any stage of the criminal proceedings, upon finding that the person is financially unable to continue to pay retained counsel, the Court may make an appointment of counsel in accordance with the general procedure set forth in this Plan. This proviso does not, however, relieve retained counsel from either his/her contractual obligations under the retainer agreement or his/her obligations under the Code of Professional Responsibility. Also, this proviso does not alter the mandate of the Local Rules which require leave of Court to withdraw once a notice of appearance has been entered.

N. Counsel appointed by a Judge shall, unless excused by order of the Court, continue to act for the represented party in all court proceedings and other matters for which counsel was assigned. In all criminal cases, counsel shall advise the defendant of the right to appeal and of the right to counsel on appeal. If requested to do so by the defendant in a criminal case, counsel shall file a timely notice of appeal and shall continue to represent the defendant on appeal unless or until counsel is relieved by the Court of Appeals. Counsel must also comply with all rules regarding appeal including, where appropriate, the preparation of a writ of certiorari and advice to a defendant regarding the right to proceed pro se.

O. The Judge before whom a case is pending may, in the interest of justice, substitute one appointed counsel for another at any stage of the proceedings.

XIII. INVESTIGATIVE, EXPERT AND OTHER SERVICES

Counsel, whether or not appointed under this Plan, for a party who is financially unable to obtain investigative, expert or other services necessary for an adequate defense, may request such services by ex parte application to a Judge, as provided in 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(e) and any applicable guidelines established by the Judicial Conference of the United States. Upon finding that such services are necessary for adequate representation, and that the person is financially unable to obtain them, the Judge shall authorize counsel to obtain the services.

XIV. COMPENSATION

A. Payments of fees and expenses to counsel appointed under this Plan, other than to the Federal Public Defender, including any payment for investigative, expert or other services incurred, shall be made in accordance with any statutory limitations and such rules, regulations and guidelines as have been or may be prescribed from time to time by the Judicial Conference of the United States, and in accordance with the policies of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. No appointed counsel may request or accept any payment or promise of payment for assisting in the representation of a party, unless such payment is approved by order of the Court. Payment in excess of any maximum amount provided by statute or otherwise may be made for extended or complex representation, whenever the Court in which the representation was rendered certifies that the amount of the excess payment is necessary to provide fair compensation, and the payment is approved by the Chief Judge of the Second Circuit or his/her designee.

B. Claims for compensation of private attorneys providing representation under the Plan shall be submitted on the appropriate CJA form to the Clerk of the Court. The Clerk's office shall review the claim form for mathematical accuracy and for conformity with CJA Guidelines and, after such review, shall forward the claim form for the consideration of the presiding Judge.

C. In the event the Judge shall find that the claim for compensation as submitted should be reduced, the Judge may confer with counsel to resolve any questions concerning the claim. The Judge may also, in the Judge's discretion, refer the matter to the Committee for its review and recommendation. Any counsel whose request for fees has been reduced may promptly request review by the Judge or by the Committee which may, following a review of the request, in its discretion, submit a recommendation to the Judge regarding such request. The Judge shall make the final decision as to the fee request following consideration of counsel's submission concerning the request and the Committee's recommendation, if such has been submitted to the Judge.

XV. CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

A. The Federal Public Defender shall regularly schedule and conduct continuing legal education programs for Panel attorneys for the purpose of enhancing their professional knowledge and skills. The Federal Public Defender shall present at least two training programs each calendar year, one of which will cover the fundamentals of federal criminal defense practice, including sentencing law and practice under the federal sentencing guidelines. These programs will be conducted within the District, at a nominal cost to attendees.

B. Each Trial Panel member shall be required to attend at least one of the annual training programs presented by the Federal Public Defender, or, in the alternative, to complete a minimum of six hours of federal criminal defense continuing legal education offered by a bona fide continuing legal education program each year, at his or her own expense, as a condition of maintaining membership on the Panel. Panel members or applicants for Panel membership must certify, on or before January 1st of each year, on forms available at the Federal Public Defender's office, that they have satisfied the continuing legal education requirements as stated herein.

XVI. REMOVAL FROM THE TRIAL, APPELLATE OR TRAINING PANELS

A. Mandatory Removal

Any member of the Trial, Appellate or Training Panels who is suspended or disbarred from the practice of law by the state court to which such member is admitted or who is suspended or disbarred from this Court, shall be removed immediately from such Panels.

B. Discretionary Removal

A member of the Trial, Appellate or Training Panels who refuses to accept an appointment, or who refuses to participate in the Mentor Program as established under Section XVII of this Plan, or who refuses or neglects to comply with the requirements concerning Continuing Legal Education at Section XV, without good cause, may be removed from such Panels. A Panel member may also be removed from the Panel for failure to represent his or her client in a vigorous, professional and ethical manner. In the event that a Judge determines that an attorney should be removed from the Panel, the matter shall be referred to the Committee for its review and recommendation. The member attorney shall have an opportunity to appear and be heard, with or without counsel, before the Committee. The Committee shall promptly review the matter and report its recommendation to the Court. Upon consideration of the Committee's report, the Court may remove the attorney from the Panel.

C. Re-application

Any attorney removed from the Panel may reapply one year after removal provided the requirements of Section VIII A of this Plan are satisfied.

XVII. MENTOR PROGRAM

A. If requested by the Committee, a Trial or Appellate Panel member shall serve as a mentor to a Training Panel member. To fulfill this requirement, the Trial Panel member shall allow the Training Panel member to observe and to participate in, if appropriate, all aspects of a federal criminal case, including client conferences, decisions concerning defense strategy, motion and trial preparation and court appearances including hearings and trials.

B. Appellate Panel members shall allow the Training Panel member to participate in client conferences, review and filing of the record on appeal, research and drafting briefs, pre-argument conferences, the observation of oral argument, and, with approval of the Court of Appeals, oral argument.

C. Trial and Appellate Panel members will be expected to agree to reasonable mentoring requests and endeavor to involve the Training Panel member as closely as possible in the substance of the representation. The Committee shall establish standards for the administration of this program.

XVIII. APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL AND CASE MANAGEMENT IN CAPITAL CASES

A. Applicability and Purpose

The provisions set forth in this section shall govern in all capital cases. For the purposes of this section, “capital cases,” or “cases involving the death penalty,” are those criminal cases in which the death penalty may be or is being sought by the prosecution, as well as proceedings under 28 U.S.C. §§ 2254 or 2255 seeking to vacate or set aside a death sentence, motions for a new trial, direct appeal, application for a writ of certiorari to the Supreme Court of the United States, all post-conviction proceedings, applications for stays of execution, competency proceedings, proceedings for executive or other clemency, and other appropriate motions and proceedings.

The provisions of this section shall be implemented by the presiding judge at the earliest opportunity in any potential capital case.

B. Trial Counsel

(1) General Requirements

Due to the complex, demanding, and protracted nature of death penalty proceedings, a defendant who is or has become financially unable to obtain adequate capital representation and who applies for appointment of counsel at government expense shall be entitled, as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3005, to the assignment of at least two attorneys who meet the qualifications set forth in this section. At least one of the attorneys appointed to represent the defendant shall be learned in the law applicable to capital cases and, when applicable, qualified as pursuant to 21 U.S.C. §§ 848(q)(5) or 848(q)(6).

In cases where two or more defendants are to be tried jointly, the presiding judge shall appoint separate teams of counsel for each defendant. One member of the team shall be designated lead counsel and the other member(s) shall be identified as assistant counsel.

(2) Qualifications of Lead Counsel

To be eligible for appointment as lead counsel in a capital case, an attorney must:

- a. be a member of the bar of this court, or must be admitted to practice pro hac vice based on his or her qualifications;
- b. have at least ten years experience in the field of federal criminal defense practice;
- c. have prior experience as sole or lead defense counsel in the trial of no fewer than three serious and complex felony cases that were tried to completion in federal court;
- d. have exemplary prior experience as defense counsel in a state or federal capital case;
- e. have completed at least ten hours of approved continuing legal education in the defense of capital cases, and at least fifteen hours of approved continuing legal education focusing on federal criminal defense; and
- f. have demonstrated the necessary proficiency and commitment which exemplify the quality of representation appropriate to the defense of capital cases.

(3) Qualifications of Assistant Counsel

To be eligible for appointment as assistant counsel in a capital case, an attorney must:

- a. be a member of the bar of this court, or be admitted to practice pro hac vice on the basis of his or her qualifications;
- b. have at least five years experience in the field of federal criminal defense practice;
- c. have prior experience as defense counsel, demonstrating adequate proficiency in connection with serious and complex felony cases;
- d. have completed at least five hours of approved continuing legal education in the defense of capital cases, and at least fifteen hours of approved continuing legal education focusing on federal criminal defense; and

- e. have demonstrated the necessary proficiency and commitment which exemplify the quality of representation appropriate to the defense of capital cases.

(4) Special Appointments: Discretionary, Additional, Stand-by, or Substitute Counsel

The presiding judge may, for good cause, appoint attorneys who do not meet this section's requirements, but whose background, knowledge, or experience would otherwise enable them to effectively represent a defendant in a capital case, provided that lead counsel for each defendant shall have distinguished prior experience as defense counsel in a capital case, as required by Subsection XVIII(B)(2) of this section.

Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. §§ 848(q)(4), if necessary for adequate representation, more than two attorneys may be appointed to represent a defendant in a capital case.

Where the defendant has retained counsel, the presiding judge may appoint additional, stand-by or substitute counsel in order to ensure the adequate representation of the defendant. Appointment of additional, stand-by or substitute counsel may take place during any stage in the proceedings.

C. Appointment Procedures

(1) Appointment of Capital Trial Counsel

Appointment of trial counsel shall occur no later than when a defendant is charged with a federal criminal offense where the penalty of death is possible, unless the government issues written notice at or before the initial appearance before the presiding judge that the government will not seek the death penalty, or unless the judge orders that death is not an applicable punishment upon conviction. If the government's written notice that it will not seek the death penalty is later permitted to be withdrawn, the provisions set forth in this Section shall be implemented as soon after the withdrawal of the notice as practicable.

Before the appointment of counsel is made in a capital case, the judge presiding over the initial proceedings shall inform the Federal Public Defender for the Western District of New York that a capital case is pending and that counsel is needed. The Federal Public Defender shall provide the judge with the names of at least two attorneys who meet the guidelines for counsel in capital cases, as set forth in Section XVIII (B)(2).

The presiding judge shall either accept or reject the submitted names, and shall notify the Federal Public Defender of the decision. In the event that a recommendation is not accepted, the presiding judge shall consult with the Federal Public Defender to identify qualified counsel.

The court may appoint counsel in advance of formal charges being filed if it learns of a potential capital case prior to charges being filed or arrests being made. In order to protect the rights of an individual who is the subject of an investigation in a capital case, the presiding judge may assign interim counsel at his or her own initiative, or upon the request of any interested party.

(2) Appointment of Additional or Substitute Counsel

In cases where counsel has been retained or appointed before the government filed notice of its intent to seek the death penalty, the appointment of additional or substitute counsel is permitted once the government files notice of intent to seek the death penalty. Appointment of additional or substitute counsel shall be made sufficiently in advance of trial to permit newly-appointed counsel an adequate opportunity to prepare.

(3) Appointment of Counsel on Appeal

The attorneys appointed to represent a death-sentenced federal appellant should include at least one attorney who did not represent the appellant at trial. Once appointed, the attorney shall represent the defendant in every subsequent stage of available judicial and executive proceedings, unless replaced for good cause by a similarly qualified attorney.

At least one attorney appointed on appeal must have been admitted to practice in the court of appeals for not less than five years, and must have had not less than three years experience in the handling of appeals in that court in felony cases, pursuant to Section 848(q)(6) of Title 21, U.S.C.

(4) Appointment of Counsel in Post-Conviction Proceedings

In the interests of justice and judicial economy, unless precluded by a conflict of interest, presiding judges are urged to continue the appointment of state post-conviction counsel, if qualified under Section XVIII (B)(2), when the case enters the federal system.

(5) Conflicts of Interest

In the event that the Office of the Federal Public Defender cannot aid in the selection of counsel without creating a conflict of interest, the duties of that Office under this section shall be completed by the Chair of the CJA Panel Selection Committee for the Western District of New York, in consultation with the Defender Services Division of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, pursuant to Section 3005 of Title 18, U.S.C.

(6) Termination of Appointment

- a. If, following the appointment of counsel in a capital case, it is determined that the death penalty will not be sought, the court may consider the question of the number of counsel and the rate of compensation needed for the duration of the proceeding. After considering whether the number of counsel initially appointed is necessary to ensure effective representation or to avoid disruption of the proceeding, the court may continue the appointments or reduce the number of appointed counsel.

After considering the need to fairly compensate appointed counsel, taking into account the commitment of time and resources appointed counsel has made and will continue to make, the court may continue to pay the previously approved rate, or prospectively reduce the rate.

- b. Should a defendant in a capital case be convicted, regardless of whether he or she is sentenced to death, counsel shall continue representing the defendant on appeal, unless removed by the presiding judge or the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

D. Initial Status Conference and Case Management Schedule

(1) In all identified capital cases, the presiding judge shall promptly conduct an initial status conference to ensure the effective management of the case, including the appointment of counsel pursuant to this section. A representative of the Office of the Federal Public Defender shall be present at this conference.

(2) Upon the return or unsealing of an indictment in a capital case, the court shall schedule a status conference to discuss issues and concerns related to the death penalty authorization process conducted by the Department of Justice. Among other matters, the conference should address the scheduling of the defendant's submissions to the United States Attorney, the meeting between the defense and the United States Attorney, and discovery that may be necessary before the defense can make any submission to the court.

(3) If the Attorney General's authorization decision delays the deadlines set in the court's schedule, the court may find that the Attorney General's death penalty notice issue did not provide the defense with a reasonable time to prepare for trial, as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3593(a).

(4) In order to expedite compliance with this section, counsel shall become familiar with the United States Department of Justice protocol, practices, and procedures in capital cases.

E. Assessment of Costs and Fees

(1) Counsel

Counsel appointed pursuant to this section shall be compensated at a rate determined by the presiding judge to be reasonably necessary for qualified counsel to provide adequate representation in a capital case. At the time counsel are appointed, the court shall set an hourly rate of compensation pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 848(q)(10)(A).

(2) Investigative, Mitigation, Expert and Other Services

Upon finding that investigative, mitigation, expert or other services are necessary for the adequate representation of a defendant in a capital case, the presiding judge shall authorize counsel to obtain such services on behalf of the defendant and shall set the rate of compensation in consideration of the statutory limits.

Pursuant to the provisions of this section and the Criminal Justice Act, an interpreter shall be appointed to assist counsel if counsel is not fluent in the capital defendant's native language.

The presiding judge may authorize investigative, mitigation, expert or other services, even if the services have already been obtained.

(3) Confidentiality

Petitions for the payment of costs and fees, including the time and expense records of counsel, shall be heard ex parte and in camera. The petitions shall be placed under seal and shall be inaccessible to the prosecution and the public, absent court order or written waiver by the defendant, until disposition of the petition.

F. Procedures for Compensation

(1) Compensation for Investigative, Mitigation, Expert and Other Services

Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 848(q)(10)(B), fees and expenses for investigative, expert, and other services in excess of $7,500 must be certified by the presiding judge in order to provide fair compensation for services of an unusual character or duration. The amount of any excess payment must be approved by the Chief Judge of the Second Circuit Court of Appeals (or an active circuit judge to whom the Chief Judge has delegated this authority). The $7,500 threshold applies to the total payments for investigative, expert, and other services in a case, not to each service individually.

(2) Forms

Claims for compensation and reimbursement of expenses for services in death penalty proceedings should be submitted on CJA Form 30, “Death Penalty Proceedings: Appointment and Authority to Pay Court Appointed Counsel,” and CJA Form 31, “Death Penalty Proceedings: Ex Parte Request for Authorization and Voucher for Expert and Other Services.”

(3) Review of Vouchers

Absent extraordinary circumstances, judges should act upon panel attorney and other compensation claims within 30 days of submission.

(4) Interim Billing and Payment

In the interest of justice and judicial economy, interim billing and payment shall be allowed and encouraged for counsel, experts and other services.

(5) Case Budgeting

The presiding judge is encouraged to follow the budgeting procedure outlined in Section 6.02(F) of the Guide to Judiciary Policies and Procedures: Appointment of Counsel in Criminal Cases.

G. Other Considerations

(1) Emergency Court Contacts

In all capital cases where the death penalty has been authorized, the Clerk of the Court shall devise and implement a system for contacting the presiding judge, counsel for the parties, the United States

Marshal for the Western District of New York or his representative, and the warden of the penal institution where the defendant is awaiting execution.

(2) Stays

Upon the filing of a notice of appeal, motion for reconsideration, habeas corpus petition, or other such action which has the practical effect of challenging a sentence of death, the presiding judge shall issue a stay of execution pending final disposition of the matter, accompanied by any necessary findings. The Clerk shall immediately notify all parties, and the state or federal authorities responsible for implementing the defendant's sentence of death, of the stay. If notification is oral, it shall be followed by written notice. Unless vacated or modified, the stay will continue in effect until the expiration of all proceedings available to and elected by the defendant, including review by United States Supreme Court, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. The District Court shall grant a prompt hearing as required by 28 U.S.C. §§ 2254 & 2255 and, as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3595(a) and 21 U.S.C. § 848(q)(1), the review in capital cases shall have priority over all other cases. The Clerk shall send notice to the parties and the state or federal authorities responsible for implementing the defendant's sentence of death when the stay imposed by this provision is no longer in effect.

(3) Pre-Bail Interviews

CJA Counsel, or interim counsel appointed pursuant to this section, shall be present at each pre-bail interview with the defendant, and any other interview conducted by the United States Probation Office or any other office.

(4) Access to Defendant

In light of the heightened necessity for attorney-client consultation in a capital case, the United States Marshals Service shall cooperate in providing counsel adequate access to the defendant.

XIX. FORMS

Where standard forms have been approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States, or an appropriate committee thereof, and have been distributed by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, such forms shall be used by the Court, the Clerk, the Federal Public Defender Organization and appointed counsel.

XX. EFFECTIVE DATE
